“The 2019 Rosé Elke Home Ranch from Radio-Coteau's County Line range is bright, focused and light on its feet, with plenty of cranberry and floral character. The refreshing, crisp style makes this Rosé a delicious aperitif style wine to drink over the next few years.”

- Bone dry & oyster inspired
- Single Vineyard Source: Elke Home Ranch
- Whole cluster pressed Champagne clone of Pinot Noir

The 2019 County Line Rosé, sourced exclusively from Elke Home Ranch in Anderson Valley, is a mouthwateringly vibrant expression of whole-cluster pressed champagne clone of Pinot Noir. Bright alpine strawberries commingle with citrusy yuzu and fresh lime zest, along with hints of ripe lychee and cantaloupe. Perfumed notes of white jasmine and lemon verbena weave throughout layers of juicy grapefruit and crisp green apple. Balanced by a refined minerality, this refreshing Rosé delights on its own, or served alongside freshly shucked oysters.

The first five vintages of County Line were solely dedicated to producing a dry rosé from a whole-cluster pressed Champagne clone of Pinot Noir. A handful of varietals naturally followed. Use of traditional winemaking techniques and a shorter élevage in neutral French oak barrels or stainless steel, each wine is made to provide a cool-climate appellation snapshot of the Anderson Valley, Sonoma Coast, Russian River Valley, or the North Coast. A companion label since 2003, the team at Radio-Coteau crafts these food-friendly comfort wines to drink gracefully in the present and be enjoyed throughout the seasons.
