County Line

Zinfandel

RUSSIAN RIVER VALLEY

- Russian River Valley Zinfandel
- Indigenous Fermentations
- Barrel aged in neutral French Oak
- Bottled unfiltered
- Organically grown fruit

The deep ruby color of the 2018 County Line Russian River Zinfandel highlights the ripe dark fruit that bounds from the glass. Fresh blackberry, blueberry and Santa Rosa plum envelop the palate, giving way to warm spice notes of cinnamon and star anise, while a hint of dark chocolate is slowly revealed. The mouthfeel is full, with polished tannins and vibrant acidity elegantly balancing the fruit, culminating in an expressive, lengthy finish. Enjoy this robust yet approachable Zinfandel by itself, alongside barbecued baby back ribs, or to complement grilled portobello mushroom burgers.

The first five vintages of County Line were solely dedicated to producing a dry rosé from a whole-cluster pressed Champagne clone of Pinot Noir. A handful of varietals naturally followed. Use of traditional winemaking techniques and a shorter élevage in neutral French oak barrels or stainless steel, each wine is made to provide a cool-climate appellation snapshot of the Anderson Valley, Sonoma Coast, Russian River Valley, or the North Coast. A companion label since 2003, the team at Radio-Coteau crafts these food-friendly comfort wines to drink gracefully in the present and be enjoyed throughout the seasons.
